life!
The Washington Times
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1988
SECTION E

President John F. Kennedy's

Assassinati

A special report on the events of November 22,

THE DEATH OF PRESIDENT John F. Kennedy still casts a shadow across the traditional optimism of America after a quarter of a century.

Many Americans remember the moment they learned of the shooting of the president. For some, the fallen leader was transformed into a martyr and a myth. For others, the circumstances of his slaying turned into an obsession.

For nearly everyone, this tragic event, which seemed to tell us more about ourselves than v became a symbol of national loss that our own way.

This special report on that day ar prepared under the direction of Hugh reporter for The Washington Ti eyewitness to more of the events su moment than anyone else.

Photo by Arthur Rickerby © 1988 Time Inc.

esident and Mrs. John F. Kennedy arrive at Love Field, Dallas.

Books for Everyone On Your Gift List! Reviewed in the CHRISTMAS BOOK SECTION Coming Sunday

THE DALLAS TIMES HERALD FINAL EDITION

CONTINUOUSLY PUBLISHED FOR 81 YEARS . . . THE TIMES 1922 . . . THE HERALD 1859 . . . CONSOLIDATED 1888

DALLAS, TEXAS, FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 22, 1963

PRESIDENT DEAD

Connally Also Hit By Sniper

By GEORGE CARTER

President Kennedy died of assassin's bullets in Dallas Friday afternoon.

The President and Gov. John Connally were ambushed as they drove in the President's open motorcade in a downtown motorcade.

Two priests announced shortly before 1:30 that the President was dead.

Bullets apparently came from a high-powered rifle in a building at Houston and Elm.

A man was arrested and taken to the sheriff's office.

The President immediately clutched his chest and slumped into the arms of his wife, Jackie. Connally, apparently shot in the chest, fell in the floor under his wife's feet.

Secret service agents immediately surrounded the motorcade at high speed to Parkland Hospital.

Gov. Connally, who [illegible] in critical con-